The clevation of Farson Brownlow leaves vacant the special Treasury Agency as Knozville, which has been filled again by the appointment to that position of his son, Col. John Bell Brownlow, who, though young, is said to manifest many of the traits of character observable in the father.

Capt. J. G. Crane, of the Quariermaster's Department, recently on trial here before a general occurring a disturrement of the enormous sum of 852,000, has been acquitted.

I profess a slight knowledge of the merits of this case, but believe the disobedience of olders perpetrated by Capt. Crane was clearly established. From what I know of this officer, I hesitate not to say that he is in the wrong place when serving the Government as Quartermaster.

Business of nearly all kinds is brisk in Nachville. The landings are crowded with boats, wich are cessaturity arriving and departing, in private trade, besides many others engaged on Government second.

The weather is very piessant, and farmers in the jural districts are busily on, wed, in plowing, preparatory to putting in the space, more sey" seemed absolute. Jeff. Refugees lately arrived from Mobile state that the city is defended by at-least 15,000 troops, under Major Gen. Dainey H. Maury. The defenses are being daily strengthened. Unless danked and forced to evacuate, the rebels are determined to fight. The poor people are jubilant over the expeciation of the "Nankee army" in their midst. They are heartly sick of the rebel raile.

OUR ARMY MOVING.

The grand army of the Gulf moved from and about Mobile Bay, in diverging lines, on the 18th hast, to converge somewhere in the heart of rebeldom. This is all that need be hanown at present. The column that left Baraness, Florida, had encountered rebel sallminishers on the 19th. The resistance of fured was weak.

THE CASE OF RICKLEY.

A late Chicago attorney, but who has reintly settled in New York, informs me the stremmous exertions are being made to extract George W. L. Bickley, the President the Knights of the Golden Circle, from it beands of justice, and once more give him leads to justice, and once more give him leads of justice, and once more given him leads of the leads of the leads of justice, and once more given him leads of the the Knights of the Golden Circle, from the bands of justice, and once more give him his liberty. In the United States Court, before Judge Betts, on Saturday last a with of hobess corpus was retignable by Gen. Dir, who was supposed to have the petoner in his custody. Gen. Dix dif respond to the writ, but did not produce the corpus of the aforesaid George Bickley. The return set for the third of the Bickley was an immate of Fort Lafaveite, upon an order from Betretary, Stanton, by authority of the President, held as a Siste political prisoner, and otherwise than as a prisoner of war; that, before the service of the order, the said prisoner had been removed, by order of the Scorctary of War, to Fort Warren, in the State of Massachusetts, and therefore not within the jurisdiction of the Court. Decision in the case was resumed.
